

ANIMALS IN SERVICE

COMMENTS BOOK

Date	Name	Comment
7/5/16	Paolo & Davide	Beautiful and interesting initiative to understand better our history under a different point of view
7/5/16	F & PS Holland	Such a pity so many animals had to die. They are so important to us - Thanks for the perspective!!
7/5/16	Elizabetta	I am very happy to exhibit with these artists - Show is very beautiful. Thank you Elizabetta
8/5/16	Mary Poskett Brockley	How many times have we relied upon our animal companions? Many, Many times!
8/5/16	Claire Mouris Brockley	Good to remember how animals suffered in our human wars. I never knew about the glow worms!
8/5/16	Sarah Bettridge + Georgie Bettridge age 4 and 1 week Se14 Telegraph Hill	What a great exhibition! Georgie didn't know that pigeons carried messages like the owls do in Harry Potter! I thoroughly enjoyed it as did my daughter! Thank you!
8./5/16	H. Bandenbery	- Interesting look at the effect of war on Ypres wildlife. - very thought provoking.
8.5.16	Kit Gould	Very interesting exhibition & fascinating to learn true history of Winnie the Pooh!
8.5.16	T Rennie + Friends	Very interesting Great use of the space Thank you!
8/5/16	George Nebitt Tower Hill	Great to have some events in this space, fascinating history.
"	Jakez Bartlett	Great but sad reminder of Animals lot. Interesting o hear about the glow worms!
" "	Oliveir Maitia	Very interesting learning about the contribution of animals in the war. RIP all those affect and fallen
2/5/16	T Lewis SE15 3LW	Very interesting facts and thoughtful pictures.
8/5/16	C. Dowie SE15 3NH	Very interesting
8/5/16	Roxan Sheritau SE23 3DS	Very Creative

8/5/16	Judith Harrison SW18 3SZ	Informative and creative at same time. Very touching too. Also appreciated talking to the artists.
8/5/16	Zoe Davidgray	Thank you - very interesting + creative
8/5/16	Sioban & Bruce SE14 5TS	Fascinating - I enjoyed learning some of the history behind the artworks & found a particular synergy with my own book research.
8/5/16	Maria & Cyru New Cross	Well done !!
8/5/16	Fran Co Ashburton	Extraordinary
8/5/16	C. Creed + K. Hagan Brockley	Wonderful what a lovely exhibition to stumble across on a Sunday walk.
8/5/16	Barbara SE1 4UF	I really enjoy the piece about the dogs in the balance. I like the fact that the artist used dogs figurines for children and hang them from a branch in a wet I also read the book about flo. I knew of the pigeons, love that piece as well. Came across this by accident very good!
8/5/16	Maggie SE17 2QS	I liked seeing the photo of a carrier pigeon released from a tank - what an amazing the pigeons did! And the hopeful end of the 'mule' poem was good to leave with a positive image in my mind.
14/5/16	Justine & Jason Crofton Park	I had no idea that so many animals were a part of the war effort. Really interesting, many thanks to all who contributed to this. Bravo!!!
14/5/16	Paul Roberts	Very interesting exhibition and enlightening.
14/5/16	Chris Bridges	Fascinating + beautiful work
14/05/16	Emily Rioway York	"But shadows + shows of men, the fight" - beautiful piece
14 May	Will Wood	A wonderful idea
14 May	Jacob Eriksson York	For heroes was great!
14/5/16	Amelia (9) Marian (9) David	I liked the glow worm one. We liked the story of Winnie the Pooh ad the Camel sand + pebbles sculpture. Thank you.
14/5/16	Catherine Evans SE14 5TW	Fascinating and imaginative exhibition no idea so many animals died during WW1.

14/5/16	Michael Crawly SE14 5LB	Great space Very interesting And sad. And funny - the bear!
	Joe Domic SE14 5NL	Lovely use of the space Learnt about carrier pigeons!
14/05/16	Donna Goulding E17 6QB	My first visit to the cemetery to see this exhibition with a friend. It's such a lovely space for art and I was fascinated by the contributions of animals in war.
14.5.16	R. Haber SE24 0HS	Interesting individual pieces - Societies can be judged on how they also treat their animals - we owe them a great debt & valuable exhibition
14/05/2016	David Noble Norfolk	Very much like the idea of commemorating what animals have done for us, especially during wars. Very interesting!
14/05/2016	Lynn Pomfret & Phoebe Pomfret 11 yrs old	The bear looks so cute and amazing I love the piece with rats and nits. Phoebe
14.5.16	Hilay Ackland Devon	Really interesting exhibition - made out by volunteers day research which is fascinating - making people aware of the role of animals played in the wars. Loved the story of the bear.
14.5.16	Sara Anders	An interesting exhibition unexpected to find this in the cemetery would love to see more of this in public spaces.
14/5/16	Sheila	A lovely tribute and reminder of the many animals forced into service. Interesting to discover the reason for the creation of the RSPCA.
15/5/16	Lia Manatondose	I liked the camel sculpter
15/5/16	Eva Lear	I liked the donkey poem
15/5/16	Polly Lear Maddie Lear 11 years old	I liked the braveness from the men and animals. I like the donkey poem because its makes you feel how the people would have felt! It's great to learn about WW1!!
15/5/16	Jules & Sacha Canterbury	Beautiful story Flo the rescue dog - making displays of of the original photos
15/5/16	Nic & Jay Emerson (7) Howell (5) Turner (5)	The boys loved the camels. The paw mirror, and Turner never Knew camels went to war! (neither did I!)
15/5/16	Amy & Mathew Field Brockley	A fascinating look at animals throughout the war. It's easy to forget their contribution Beautiful exhibition Thank you!
15/05/2016	Maria Sesavolve Via G Tomascui Milan Italy	An extraordinary place, of true peace -
15/05/2016	Alessandro Minoggi! SE1G 5PW	Very interesting! Good job!
15/05/2016	Grey Butler	A lovely little exhibit to stumble across when

	SE5 8MB	walking through the cemetery. Read a book to the kids too, to Flo aged 7 and Els aged 4 about a dog coincidentally also called Flo!
15/05/2016	Sophia + Pippa Southwark London	Very clever exhibition! We loved the camels.
15/5/16	Hannah, James & Billie	Great Exhibitions! Loved the dogs in netting not related but reminded me of all the stolen dogs in Thailand at the moment! Thank you!
15/5/16	Amelia Clow	I liked the clean and fresh for its reason
15 May 2016	Firiola	I loved the Winnie the pooh story and my favourite BLACK BEAR's FISHING TRIP!
15/5/2016	Rob de Maribel	We enjoyed this very much! Interesting to see the mascots and learn important the horses and camels were in WW1.
21/5	Carole Bird Edwards	Enjoyed the exhibition especially the pigeon carrier very evocative
21/5/16	Daniel Pearson	My grandfather was in charge of horses in the artillery in the 1 st WW so seeing these pictures moved me greatly. Wonderful He never talked about the horrors he witnessed.
21/5/16	D Charles Graves W.C. Sewell My Dad	Will enjoyed being in the Navy 30 years & he was in the Dardenelles He didn't talk about it much he spoke about Boxing a lot.
21/5/16	Janine London	Great Stuff!
21/5/16	Glynis Hopkins SE22 8SA	Wonderful exhibition of animals at War. Great photographs of London
21/5/16	Val Cowell SM2 6QL	Thought provoking and amazing. Love It.
21/5/16	Kate, Stoke Newington Andy, Lewisham	Really surprising and informative. As very original idea. What a lovely idea!
21/5/16		Great a first class exhibition Keep up the good work.
21/5/16		Wonderful and inspiring exhibition of artwork made with so many and varied materials great to look at and very informative with the information panel and artist details. Thank you.
22/5/16	Clive Knowles	Do you know Kimberley Bryce who has completed

22/5/16	Clive Knowles FONC	Do you know Kimberley Bryce who has completed a PhD at Kings College London on war dogs. Look her up on the Internet.
22/5/16	Steve Page Linden Grove SE26	Perfect combination of art and war history.
22/5/16	Beaumont SE23 1HA	I really liked After the War - For Heroes by Elizabeta Chojak-Mysko
24/5/16	G Block SE23 1HA	Most interesting about the setting up of the RSPCA and Jill Rock's two installations.
22 May 2016	Harper Mulvihill (age 6)	I like art We loved reading Flo of the Somme together
28/5/16	Patricia Stocker Brockley SE4 1LD	Very interesting exhibition.
28/5/16	Dave Grosvenor Lancashire BB3 2TP	Lovely setting - thought-provoking
28 V 2016	Jane Pyzniuk Darwen Lancashire BB3 2TP	Enjoyed the exhibition - there are always so many stories to be told - Hadn't realized that WW1 had provided the impetus for the RSPCA to be founded, in response to slaughter of the War Horses
28/5/2016	Iryna Sanders SE15 2DD	Rich in ideas and creativity. Fantastic way of inspiring reflection and bringing back the reality of these who have enabled us to enjoy the lives we lead. Thank you - long may Art continue to enrich our lives.
28/5/16	Bridget Culhaine DT4 8TX	A Beautiful place; a very interesting talk & information given Keep up the good work, as a veterinary nurse for the PDSA interested in the topic because of the Dickin medal aspect.
28/5/16	The Mortons London	Loved the camels after the war. A potent reminder of the cost of war.
29/5/16	The Gaytans East Dulwich	Great mixed media exhibition celebrating the great & good animals from WW1. Love the story of the Mule - very moving Thank You
29/5/16	Jackie donks E. Dulwich	Good to see an exhibition in an unusual place Thank You.
29/5/16	Graham Jameson New Y	Really interesting - war as absurd as well as cruel.
29/5/16	Chiara and James Quinn	Really enjoyed the exhibition very thoughtful -

29/5/16	Jane Hart Brockley	Such a great use of the space and very informative. Thank you everyone!
29/5/16	Jeff Hart	Great to see the inspiration from the theme leading to fascinating art works is a wonderful setting. Good use of community asset.
30/5/16	Lotties Tayson + Matthew Humberstone	Very provoking and thorough exhibition. It gave us much thought. I hadn't reached ratio of deaths of animals + men Thank you.
30/5/16	David Moore N19	First visit to the cemetery, really enjoyed it. Chapel, exhibition, walking round.
30/5/16	Padi & Tom Rawson SE15	Excellent exhibition - learned about the founding of the RSPCA & 3D Printing Thank you!
30/5/16	Will Vincent SE15 4EL	What a lovely surprise to stumble across an exhibition in the cemetery - intriguing content too!
30/5/16	Michele Reedy SE23 3LB	Fascinating exhibition - a real little hidden treasure on such a touching subject. Would be back to see more of this type of exhibitions!
30/5/16	Alison Key	My second visit to the cemetery despite living in the area, A nice surprise hidden in the mausoleum.
30.5.16	Chris Selsby West Yorkshire LS9 9LU	Lovely addition to a walk in the cemetery. Made even nicer for having one of the artists outside to talk with.
30.5.16	Glynis Williams SE22 0DE	I'm glad to honour the poor animals which had no choice, I'm pleased that you have created this exhibition and I found all the information thought-provoking.
30.5.16	Pauline Shirvell SE15 3AN	A tremendous exhibition, the best yet. Using this space to commemorate anniversaries has generated work of such imaginative depth. An excellent brief has brought forth research into the nooks and crannies of life experience human and animal from the humble glowworm and bacterium to the most sentient, and transformed it with wonderful clear imagery (the use of levels pre - during + after brilliant!).